

KILLED BY KINDNESS
©2001 DAREN THOMAS TURNER

don't say it once, you'll regret it don't say it's done, you pretentious creature of gingivitis nocturnal uninvited
you asked for greener pasture you dress like a disaster the best of what you're after is gone with all the laughter i hear you cough and choking a binge and purge devotion and cover up with lotion and smell your stinking ocean where is your new direction?
where is your nude reflection?
where is your resurrection?
where is your will?

oh
killed by kindness
